Freedom of Information Act 2000

I am writing in response to your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 in relation to Feticide Procedure.

*You asked: All questions are shown as received by the Trust.
Is the administration of a direct fetal painkiller or anesthetic, such as fentanyl or lidocaine, prior to a feticide included in the surgery protocols/standard operating procedures for a feticide in your NHS Trust?*

Trust response:

This Trust does not perform Feticide.
